

Assessment Plan Table
Hobe Sound Bible College
Ministerial Studies
Dr. Aaron Hamilton

Objectives	Assessment Criteria & Procedures	Assessment Results 2021 - 2022	Use of Results Planned for 2022-2023
1. The student will be able to demonstrate the basic principles, methods and skills for a spiritually effective pastoral ministry.	80% of graduating students will obtain a total cumulative score of 100 on their internship evaluation .	One graduating senior obtain a total cumulative score of 100 on their internship evaluation. The second graduating senior received a certificate of ministerial training due to specific academic challenges.	Continue to be proactive in the scheduling of internships.
2. The student will be able to analyze a passage of scripture from an exegetical viewpoint and organize the truth homiletically, aptly using illustration, definition and parallel passages to make truth clear. The student should be able to deliver a sermon with poise, clarity of thought and spiritual anointing.	80% of graduating students will obtain a total cumulative score of 24 or higher on their senior sermon evaluation form .	Both graduating students received a score higher than 24 on their senior sermon evaluation form .	Continue to evaluate senior sermons and create a form to share with students.
3. The student will be acquainted with the history, theology and methods of evangelism and missions. The student should be able to do the work of an evangelist, present the gospel to one person in personal witnessing, teach the Bible in a small group situation, organize efforts for saturation evangelism of a	80% of graduating students will obtain a total cumulative score of 100 on their internship evaluation .	One graduating senior obtain a total cumulative score of 100 on their internship evaluation. The second graduating senior received a certificate of ministerial training due to specific academic challenges.	Better communicate the expectations of the internship to the students.

community, develop a valid and active missionary program for the local church and demonstrate the ability to preach evangelistically from the pulpit.
---	--	--	--